EUCOM Conducts Relieving the Watch Ceremony

A Relieving the Watch ceremony will be held Aug. 2, 11 a.m. on Washington Square during which Marine Corps Gen. Carlton Fulford Jr. will assume command as EUCOM deputy commander in chief from Adm. Charles (Steve) Abbot. The CINCSouth Band will provide music during the ceremony while 105 mm howitzers fire a salute. In case of inclement weather the ceremony will be held in the Patch Barracks Fitness Center.

Duty uniform combinations for all personnel on Patch Barracks Aug. 2 have been designated for each branch of service. For Army personnel, class B; Navy personnel, summer white; Marines, summer service C; and Air Force personnel, blues. Ceremony participants and attendees should obtain appropriate uniform designation from their respective units.

Washington Square and the parking area at the north end of building 2307 will be closed beginning Aug. 1. All vehicles not removed from these areas by July 31, 7 p.m. will be towed away. Car alarms in vehicles parked on post should be turned off before the rehearsal at 11 a.m. Aug. 1 and before the ceremony Aug. 2. Both events involve occasional noise levels that may set off car alarms.
